

The Snow Queen

Activities

Gerda and Kay

Choose the right sentence for each number.

A.

Come with me.
Let's go home.

B.

At last I've found you!

C.

Nothing.
It's gone

D.

Gerda? Is it really you?

E.

Kay! What's the matter?

Mixed-up story

Can you put these pictures and sentences in order?

The angels fought the wild animals.

Grandmother told Gerda and Kay stories.

Ba carried Gerda all the way to Lapland.

“Oh my dear children,” said Grandmother.

“Ba will take care of you,” said the robber girl.

Kay had ice in his heart and in his eye.

The Snow Queen gave Kay an ice-cold kiss.

Gerda arrived at the Snow Queen’s Winter Palace.

“Have you seen Kay?” Gerda asked the crow.

The Snow Queen

Which three things can't you see in the picture?

three white horses

the Snow Queen

a golden carriage

a silver sleigh houses in the city

Gerda's grandmother

the river

a fur coat
and hat

Beautiful roses

Choose the right sentence for each picture.

1.

- A. They grew roses in the window boxes.
- B. They grew roses in the garden.

2.

- A. Gerda's hat had pictures of roses.
- B. The old woman's hat had pictures of roses.

3.

- A. There were roses on the princess's golden carriage.
- B. There were roses on the princess's silver sleigh.

4.

- A. There were roses growing inside.
- B. There were roses growing outside.

How do they help?

Choose a word to finish each sentence.

The crow has a friend in the city forest palace

The princess gives Gerda a coach.

cold golden magic

The birds say that Kay is far away north happier

The robber girl gives Gerda some

furs food money

Ba takes Gerda to
.....

Scotland Finland Lapland

The old woman helps Gerda to get warm home shoes