

Activities

People in the story

Choose one sentence ending for each of the people below.

Alice...

The White Rabbit...

The Cheshire Cat...

The Queen of Hearts...

A.
...tells Alice to have some cake.

C.
...thinks Alice is his servant.

E.
...paints the roses red.

G.
...says, "Off with their heads!"

B.
...throws the ugly baby to Alice.

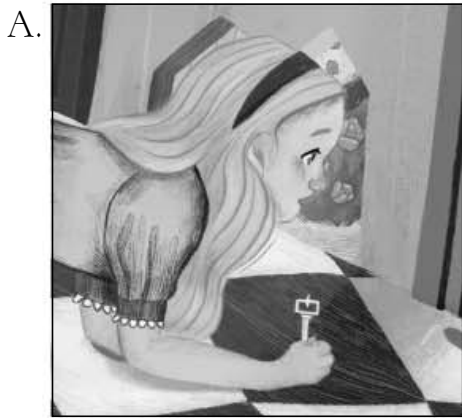

D.
...turns into a frog.

F.
...can appear and disappear.

H.
...has the strangest dream.

Mixed-up story

Can you put these pictures and sentences in order?

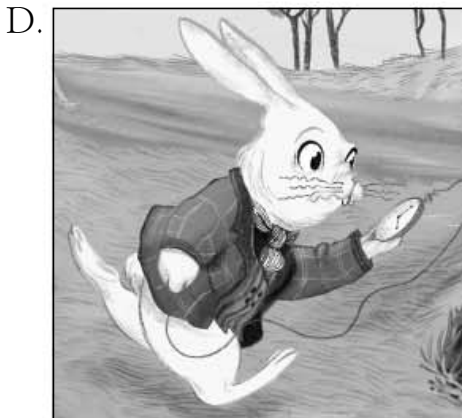

She could see a beautiful garden, but she couldn't fit through the door.

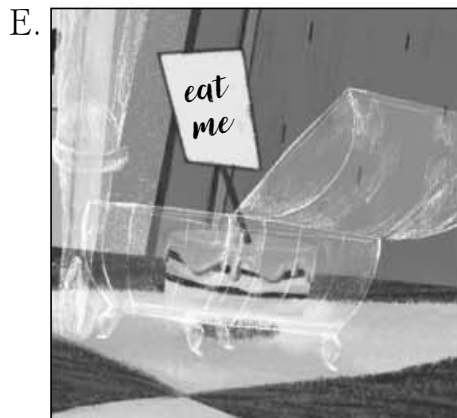

"Let's run a race!" said the Dodo.

Suddenly a white rabbit ran past.

The rabbit said, "I'm going to be late."

Inside was a cake with another label: EAT ME.

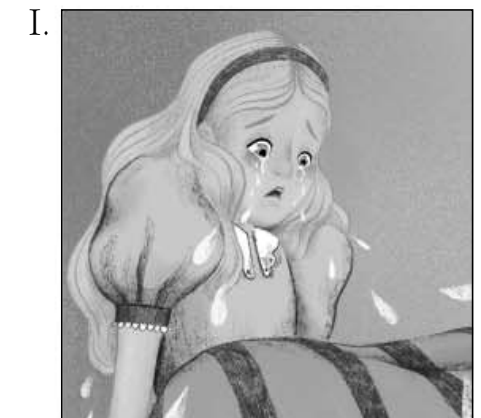

"Now we all need prizes," said the Dodo.

All kinds of animals were swimming beside her.

Alice fell down the hole, a long way down.

"I'll never reach the garden now."

Where did Alice...

Choose the places that answer the questions.

Where did Alice see a beautiful garden?

Where did she put her arm through a window?

Where did she think there was too much pepper in the soup?

Where did she meet the Caterpillar?

Where did she play a game of croquet?

Where did she wake up?

- A. By the river.      B. In a forest.      C. Inside the White Rabbit's house.
D. Through a tiny door.      E. In the Queen of Hearts's garden.
F. In the Duchess's kitchen.

Outside the March Hare's house

Which three things can't you see in the picture?

Alice

Mad Hatter

leaves

chair

plate

Dormouse

key

heart (shape)

tea

March Hare

path

White Rabbit

We're all mad here

One word in each sentence is wrong.
Can you find it and choose the correct one?

On one side, an ordinary cook was making soup.

angry enormous unhappy

"That's no fun!" said Alice.

surprise help problem

So the cat looked back
and disappeared slowly.

came reached turned

"I'm not whispering to you!"

pointing mentioning listening