The London skyline

London’s skyline is changing all the time, with towering new buildings going up beside the old. Many of the new buildings are made from steel and coloured glass. This is a view of the City, the oldest part of London.

Saint Paul’s Cathedral is one of London’s most famous buildings. Built from white stone, it has a gold cross on top of the dome.

Different boats sail up and down the River Thames.

Cargo boat

Police launch