

MASTER SPYCRAFT

All good spies need several tricks up their sleeves to keep their identities and messages secret.

DISGUISE YOUR VOICE

Keep who you are on the phone a mystery by changing your voice.

- Try...
- pursing your lips
 - pinching your nose
 - pushing your tongue up against the roof of your mouth.
 - doing an impression of someone.
 - speaking with a slow drawl.

WALK LIKE ANOTHER

Study the way other people walk. Then try to copy their steps.

- Try...
- taking short or long strides
 - bouncing on the soles of your feet.
 - walking on your toes.
- Remember, no one expects the unusual!

CHANGE YOUR LOOKS

- Wear someone else's clothes.
- Stuff a pillow inside your coat.
- Rub hair product through your hair. Then comb in a very neat parting or ruffle it into a wild mane.

WHAT'S THIS?

It's a microdot. Spies hide messages in their contacts' name cards. To look at them through a microscope can read these words.

It's a microdot. Spies hide messages in microdots because only their contacts who knew to look at them through a microscope can read these words.

WRITE IN CODE

Dots & lines
Give your contacts this key. Tell them they can identify the letters by the lines around them and whether there is a dot.

A	B	C	J	K	L	S	W
D	E	F	M	N	O	T	X
G	H	I	P	Q	R	U	Y
						V	Z

= CAUTION

WRITE INVISIBLY

Use juice from a lemon for ink, and a toothpick for a pen. Keep dipping the toothpick in the juice as you write your message on white paper.

The words will only appear if you bake the paper in an oven at 150°C (300°F) for ten minutes.

Trio trick

first, split your message into groups of three letters.

CON TAC TSP YMA STE RHQ

Then, jumble each group of three letters by moving the first letter between the second and third.

OCN ATC STP MYA TSE HRQ

Now try to decipher this message that uses three different codes...

EME ITN PGO NIT

- 5 socks
- 2 pants
- 1 fez
- 2 vests

Pssst list

Hide words in lists. The number identifies the position of the letter in the decoy word next to it.

- 4 fish
- 2 beans
- 3 melons
- 1 potato

SPY TIP

Using more than one code to write your message makes it especially hard to crack.
